DOUG WILSON

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Since being named the team's executive vice president and general manager on May 13, 2003, Doug Wilson has strategically built the San Jose Sharks into one of the National Hockey League's top franchises through strong drafting, shrewd trades and timely free agent signings.

In his nine seasons in charge of the Sharks hockey department, Wilson has guided the team to its most successful era since the franchise's inception, capturing a Presidents' Trophy (2009), five Pacific Division titles and advancing to the Western Conference Final on three occasions (2004, 2010, 2011).

In his tenure as general manager, only the Detroit Red Wings have appeared in more Stanley Cup Playoff rounds (21) than San Jose (19).

During that span, the Sharks rank second in the NHL in regular season points (906 points, 407-205-92 record) and are second in wins among all NHL teams.

Prior to the shortened 2012-13 season, the Sharks posted eight consecutive 40+ win seasons (tied for second-most among all NHL teams) and also had seven consecutive seasons (2003-2011) of 99 points or higher. Over an eight-year span from 2003-2012, the Sharks averaged 106 points per season.

Wilson's focus in team-building is forging the team through drafting and development, retaining the organization's key players and making the Sharks organization a place that players want to come and play. Beginning with the 2003 NHL Draft, Wilson's first as general manager, through 2011, Sharks draft selections have played the third-most games of any NHL team's draft picks (4,658) and posted the fifth-most points (1,977) in that span, despite the organization having the lowest average draft position of any NHL team (138th).

In his current role, Wilson, 56, has overall authority regarding all of Sharks Sports & Entertainment's hockey-related operations. He oversees all player personnel decisions, negotiates player contracts, coordinates the efforts of the team's scouting department, leads the team in its draft day preparation and administers the club's player evaluation process at all professional, minor and junior levels.

Wilson serves as one of the franchise's alternate governors to the NHL's Board of Governors.

In his previous role as the franchise's director of pro development (1997-03), Wilson's responsibilities included evaluating talent at all professional and minor league levels and continuous assessment of the Sharks roster and reserve list. In addition, he provided valuable input assisting in the club's player development programs and consulting with the hockey department on all major personnel issues, special assignments and contract negotiations.

Working closely with the entire hockey department, Wilson played a major role in creating a positive atmosphere in the dressing room and on-the-ice attractiveness to obtaining and retaining veteran free agents during the team's re-building period such as Vincent Damphousse, Mike Ricci, Gary Suter, Scott Thornton and Mike Vernon.

From 1993-97, Wilson was an integral member of the NHLPA. A past president of the NHLPA, he also served as coordinator of player relations and business development, where he was primarily responsible for overseeing player relations, the development of business ventures and managing international affairs.

Wilson sat on the board of the Canadian Hockey Association and has extensive experience in talent evaluation. He served as management consultant for Canada's entries in the 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997 World Junior Championship tournaments — resulting in four consecutive gold medal finishes and also served on the management team for Canada's entry in the 1998 Winter Olympic Games.

Wilson draws on a vast amount of hockey knowledge and expertise throughout his on-and-off the ice experiences. His older brother, Murray, played seven NHL seasons, capturing four Stanley Cup Championships with the Montreal Canadiens (1973, 1976-78) as a teammate of Sharks current associate coach Larry Robinson. As a member of the Ontario Hockey League's Ottawa 67s, Wilson played for Hall of Famer Brian Kilrea, junior hockey's all-time winningest coach. During his tenure with the Chicago Blackhawks, Wilson was a teammate of NHL legend Bobby Orr and a roommate with Hockey Hall of Famer Stan Mikita.

In 2004, Wilson participated in the NHL Game Committee, a panel of players, coaches, executives and media responsible for examining all aspects of the game. The committee, which initially met during the off-season, included Hall of Fame Coach Scotty Bowman and Pittsburgh Penguins Chairman of the Board Mario Lemieux, among others.

As a player, following a stellar junior career with the Ottawa 67s, the Ottawa, Ontario native was a first round draft choice (sixth overall) by the Chicago Blackhawks in 1977. He played 16 NHL seasons, primarily with Chicago, before finishing his career in San Jose. In 1,024 NHL games, he posted 827 points (237 goals, 590 assists) which ranks 15th among defensemen on the NHL's all-time scoring list. In 1982, he was the winner of the James Norris Memorial Trophy, symbolic of the League's top defenseman, when he tallied 85 points. His 39 goals that season are the fourth-most ever scored by an NHL defenseman.

Wilson ranks fifth on the Blackhawks all-time points (779) and games played lists (938), and among defensemen, he ranks first in points, goals (225; 12th overall) and assists (554; third overall). He led all Blackhawks defensemen in scoring for eight consecutive seasons (1980-81 thru 1989-90).

He was selected to eight NHL All-Star Games (seven with Chicago and one with San Jose) and while with Chicago, Wilson was named as an NHL First Team All-Star in 1982 and twice was named as an NHL Second Team All-Star (1985 and 1990). In addition, he played in 95 career playoff games with Chicago and scored 80 points (19 goals, 61 assists).

Acquired by San Jose just prior to the Sharks inaugural season in 1991, Wilson brought instant credibility and respect to the young franchise. He played two seasons for the Sharks, serving as the organization's first captain and scoring 48 points (12 goals, 36 assists) in 86 games.

Additional highlights from Wilson's Sharks career include being the team's first representative in an All-Star Game (1991-92), playing in his NHL-milestone 1,000th game on Nov. 21, 1992 (77th player in League history) and twice being named (1992 and 1993) the Sharks nominee for the King Clancy Award, presented for leadership and humanitarian contributions both on-and-of the ice.

Wilson announced his retirement as a member of the Sharks during training camp in 1993-94.

In 2004, Wilson was named to the Positive Coaching Alliance's National Advisory Board. Positive Coaching Alliance is a national non-profit developing "Better Athletes, Better People" by working to provide all youth and high school athletes a positive, character-building youth sports experience.

Wilson was inducted into the Chicago Sports Hall of Fame in September 1999. He also formerly served on the board of directors for the NHL's Alumni Association.

In October 1998, the Ottawa 67s honored his stellar career by retiring his No. 7 sweater and inducting him into the Ottawa Sports Hall of Fame.

Wilson and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Lacey, Doug, Chelsea and Charlie.

WAYNE THOMAS

Vice President and Assistant General Manager

Wayne Thomas recently completed his 17th season as assistant general manager and his 12th as vice president, providing Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Wilson with an experienced, versatile and valuable assistant.

Thomas, 65, is well versed in all aspects of the National Hockey League, garnering experience from his more than 40 years of being a player, head coach, assistant coach, advance scout and executive. Before his promotion in March 1996, he was in his third season as Sharks assistant coach and assistant to the general manager.

An Ottawa, Ontario native, Thomas is intimately involved with all aspects of the Sharks on- and off-ice operations, evaluating players on the Sharks reserve list with special emphasis on goaltenders, scouting other NHL teams and taking an active role in other player personnel matters.

For the past nine seasons, Thomas has also taken on a more advanced, day-to-day role in working with the Sharks goaltenders on-and-off the ice. He also oversees the work of Goaltending Development Coach Corey Schwab, who assists in working with the Sharks goaltenders in San Jose and with Sharks prospects in Worcester, San Francisco and other amateur leagues.

Thomas serves an important role as a liaison between the coaches, training staff and the hockey department, facilitates the interaction of hockey department personnel within the organization, coordinates the construction of the NHL pre- and regular season schedules, assists the efforts of the Sharks scouting staff and coordinates a variety of front office administrative matters.

Under Thomas' direct supervision and following the franchise's goal of developing players from the Worcester Sharks, San Jose's top development affiliate in the American Hockey League, Worcester has produced a number of key players on the Sharks current roster which were acquired through the NHL Draft or as unsigned free agents, including Logan Couture, Joe Pavelski, Justin Braun, Matt Irwin, Jason Demers, Andrew Desjardins and Tommy Wingels.

Reinforcing the link between the Sharks and their drafting and development system through the American Hockey League, from 2003-2012 the Sharks draft selections played the second-most games of any NHL team's draft picks (4,078), despite the organization having the lowest average draft position of any NHL team during that span (137.96).

In his role as Sharks assistant coach from 1993-96, Thomas assisted with game strategy, advance scouting of opponents and performed individual work with the Sharks goaltenders. In addition, he collaborated with the general manager on a year-round basis regarding administrative matters.

Thomas joined the Sharks coaching and management staff for the 1993-94 season after spending three seasons (1990-93) as an assistant coach with the St. Louis Blues. Thomas also served in that capacity with the Chicago Blackhawks in 1987-88 and was head coach at Peoria (International Hockey League) from 1988-90 and at Salt Lake City from 1985-87. His 1985-86 squad captured the IHL's Turner Cup Championship.

A former NHL goaltender, his playing career consisted of 243 games over nine seasons, posting a 103-93-34 record with Montreal, Toronto and the New York Rangers. In his rookie season, Thomas was a member of the Canadiens 1972-73 Stanley Cup Championship squad. Additional career highlights included being selected to and getting the win at the 1976 NHL All-Star Game as a member of the Maple Leafs, posting 10 career shutouts — including one in his first NHL start — and a lifetime goals-against average of 3.34. After his retirement in 1981, Thomas spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Rangers.

Thomas has a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin, where he played three years of hockey from 1967-70.

JOE WILL

Assistant General Manager, San Jose Sharks General Manager, Worcester Sharks

Joe Will begins his third season as assistant general manager for the San Jose Sharks and his first as general manager of the Worcester Sharks.

In San Jose, Will works closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Wilson on all daily departmental functions and his primary responsibilities include contract research and negotiations, scouting operations, fiscal planning, salary cap analysis and hockey administration. He's the lead coordinator and planner for the Sharks training camp scouting meetings and scouting conference calls each season.

In addition, as general manager of the Worcester Sharks, he will oversee all the hockey operations for the Sharks American Hockey League affiliate, including player evaluation, player contracts, and player recall and reassignments.

One of his most important duties involves the tracking, analyzing and projecting of the team's player payroll relative to the current and future National Hockey League salary cap to give the team the financial flexibility to ice a championship-caliber team each season.

Will, 49, also works with the organization's professional scouts and management team in player research for expansion, waivers, free agency and trades. His expert analysis of economic trends in the NHL has led to the Sharks acquisition and retention of several key veteran players over his time with the club.

Prior to his current roles, Will served as the team's director of hockey operations from 2004-2011. A member of the Sharks organization since the franchise's inception in July 1990, he has also previously served as assistant to the general manager and scouting coordinator.

The Bloomington, Minn. native also works with Director of Scouting Tim Burke in the development and implementation of draft prospect testing, draft table operations and computer scouting analysis. Will is an integral part of the team's draft-day strategy. Without his coordinating efforts, the team would not have drafted 2001 Calder Memorial Trophy winner Evgeni Nabokov in 1994. In addition, he developed the Sharks computer scouting program that pioneered the advent of scouting programs now used throughout the NHL.

Prior to joining San Jose, Will spent six years in the Minnesota North Stars organization in various capacities.

TODD McLELLAN

Head Coach

Few coaches have been as successful as Todd McLellan during their first five seasons behind an NHL bench.

Since being named head coach of the Sharks on June 12, 2008, McLellan has posted a 220-108-48 record, the third-best points percentage of any NHL team in that span. Under his leadership, the Sharks have posted four 40-plus win seasons, had three 100-point seasons, captured a Presidents' Trophy (2009), three Pacific Division titles and made back-to-back appearances in the Western Conference Final (2010, 2011).

In 2012-13, McLellan became the second-fastest NHL coach to reach 200 career wins (333 games) and no head coach in NHL history won more games in their first four seasons behind the bench than the 195 collected by McLellan from 2008-2012.

He became the franchise's all-time winningest coach with his 207th victory on March 14 vs. Los Angeles, surpassing Ron Wilson.

In 2010, he became just the third coach in National Hockey League history to record 50-plus wins in his first two seasons.

In his first season as an NHL head coach, McLellan, 46, was named as a finalist for the Jack Adams Trophy and became just the sixth rookie NHL coach (and first since 1990) to lead his team to the Presidents' Trophy for the best overall regular season record (53-18-11). Only Tom Johnson's 1970-71 Boston Bruins won more home games (33) than McLellan's Sharks (32) and the team's 53 wins placed him tied for second behind Johnson (57 wins) for most overall coaching wins by a rookie head coach. In addition, McLellan's .713 points percentage ranks third all-time among first year bench bosses with at least 80 games coached.

That year, the Sharks collected 52 points through the first 30 games of the season (32-5-4, an NHL record) and began the season 20-0-2 at HP Pavilion. They were the only team in the League to be in the top-five of each of the following categories: power play (third, 24.2 percent), penalty kill (fifth, 83.3), shots for (third, 33.2), shots against (first, 27.2) and face-offs (second, 53.8).

He has twice been tabbed to serve as head coach for one of the NHL's All-Star Squads (2012-Team Alfredsson; 2009-Western Conference).

Prior to joining San Jose, McLellan spent three seasons as an assistant coach under Mike Babcock with the Detroit Red Wings. During that span, no NHL team won more games (162) or earned more standings points (352) than Detroit. One of McLellan's key responsibilities was working with the Red Wings power play, which finished third in the NHL in 2007-08 (20.7) and first in 2005-06 (22.1).

In his eight seasons coaching in the NHL with San Jose and Detroit, McLellan's teams have won one Stanley Cup (2008 with Detroit), three Presidents' Trophies (2006 and 2008 with Detroit – finishing second overall in 2007, tying the Buffalo Sabres for first in points (113) but having three fewer wins – and 2009 with San Jose), four appearances in the Western Conference Final (2007, 2008 with Detroit and 2010, 2011 with San Jose) and six division titles.

Prior to being hired in Detroit, McLellan spent four seasons as head coach of the Houston Aeros in the American Hockey League, including capturing the 2003 Calder Cup Championship. Under his guidance, McLellan led the Aeros to a 154-111-37-18 mark (.567 winning percentage). He was named 2003 Minor Coach of the Year by The Hockey News and also was selected to coach two AHL All-Star Games during his tenure in Houston.

In 2000-01, he was the head coach of the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League, posting a 43-32-7 record.

From 1994-95 through 1999-00, McLellan coached the Swift Current Broncos of the Western Hockey League, where he also served as general manager in his final four seasons. He was named 2000 WHL Coach of the Year and 1997 WHL Executive of the Year. The team captured division titles in 1996 and 2000.

In his 19 years of serving as a head and assistant coach, McLellan's teams have never missed the postseason.

McLellan, a native of Melville, Saskatchewan, played his junior hockey with Saskatoon (WHL) and was drafted by the New York Islanders in the fifth round (106th overall) in the 1986 NHL Entry Draft. He played parts of two seasons with Springfield in the AHL and played in five games with the Islanders in 1987-88, posting two points (one goal, one assist) before a shoulder injury ended his career.

He serves on the Positive Coaching Alliance's (PCA) National Advisory Board. Positive Coaching Alliance is a national non-profit developing "Better Athletes, Better People" by working to provide all youth and high school athletes a positive, character-building youth sports experience.

McLellan and his wife, Debbie, have two sons: Tyson and Cale.

LARRY ROBINSON

Associate Coach

Universally recognized as one of the top defensemen to ever play in the National Hockey League, Larry Robinson enters his second season as associate coach on Todd McLellan's staff.

Robinson spent 2010-2012 as an assistant coach with the New Jersey Devils, where the team advanced to the 2012 Stanley Cup Final. He was also an assistant coach with New Jersey during their 1995 and 2003 Stanley Cup Championship seasons.

Robinson served as head coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1995-99 and for the New Jersey Devils from 1999-2002 and in 2005-06. He led the Devils to a Stanley Cup Championship in 2000 and the Stanley Cup Final in 2001, before falling to the Colorado Avalanche in seven games.

Inducted as a player into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1995, Robinson spent 20 NHL seasons with the Montreal Canadiens and Los Angeles Kings. He twice won the James Norris Trophy (1977 and 1980) as the NHL's most outstanding defenseman and won the Conn Smythe Trophy (1978) as the most valuable player in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Robinson won six Stanley Cups as a player with Montreal (1973, 1976, 1977, 1978, 1979 and 1986) and holds the NHL record for playing 20 consecutive seasons in the playoffs, 17 of them with the Canadiens. In total, his name appears on the Stanley Cup nine times as a player, head coach and assistant coach.

A ten-time NHL All-Star, Robinson also had a distinguished international career playing for Team Canada in the 1976, 1981 and 1984 Canada Cup (he was Sharks GM Doug Wilson's defense partner in 1984). He was named to the NHL First All-Star Team and NHL Second All-Star Team three times each.

In 1384 regular season games with Montreal and Los Angeles, Robinson posted 958 points (207 goals, 751 assists) and 793 penalty minutes. Among all-time NHL defensemen, he ranks ninth in points and assists, and 13th in games played. His +730 plus/minus rating is the highest among any player in NHL history (the second place player, Ray Bourque, is more than 200 points lower with a +528).

Other career honors include: Ranked 24th on The Hockey News' list of the 100 Greatest Hockey Players (1998); Inducted into the Ottawa Sports Hall of Fame (2000); Inducted into the Canada Sports Hall of Fame (2004); Had his No. 19 retired by the Canadiens (2007); Named Best Defenseman in Montreal Canadiens history at the team's 100th Anniversary celebration on Dec. 4, 2009.

JIM JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

Jim Johnson enters his second season as an assistant coach on Todd McLellan's staff in San Jose

A 14-year NHL defenseman, Johnson, 50, also served as an assistant coach on Dale Hunter's staff with the Washington Capitals during the 2011-12 season. He has also served as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2010 and interim assistant coach of the Phoenix Coyotes in 1999-00.

Prior to coming to Washington in 2011, Johnson coached for Switzerland's HC Lugano. While working with the Tampa Bay Lightning organization, he also served as the head coach for the American Hockey League's Norfolk Admirals during the 2009-10 season and as development coach for the Lightning in 2008-09.

Johnson also spent three seasons (2000-2002) as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Junior Team and served as development coach in 1999.

A stay-at-home defenseman in his playing days, Johnson had a standout career at the University of Minnesota-Duluth (UMD) and was signed by the Pittsburgh Penguins as a free agent in 1985. Johnson played 829 NHL games with Pittsburgh, Minnesota/Dallas, Washington and Phoenix, posting 195 points (29 goals, 166 assists) and 1197 penalty minutes before suffering a career-ending concussion in the 1997-98 season.

In Oct. 2012, Johnson was inducted into UMD's Hall of Fame.

Johnson also represented the United States at four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987 and 1990) and one Canada Cup (1991).

The native of New Hope, Minnesota is also a co-founder/partner in flexCOACH along with several former NHL players and coaches. flexCOACH delivers online coaching education programs for youth sports coaches.

JAY WOODCROFT

Assistant Coach

Jay Woodcroft begins his sixth season in San Jose as an assistant coach and ninth in the National Hockey League.

Prior to joining the Sharks, Woodcroft, 36, spent three seasons alongside Sharks Head Coach Todd McLellan on the Detroit Red Wings coaching staff (2005-08), including their 2008 Stanley Cup Championship season.

In eight seasons in the NHL, Woodcroft has been a part of teams that have won 382 regular season games, five Western Conference regular season titles, three Central Division and three Pacific Division Championships, three Presidents' Trophies, 55 playoff games and a Stanley Cup.

Woodcroft joined the Red Wings following a six-year minor league career. He spent the 2004-05 season in Germany playing for the Stuttgart Wizards and, in his career, played with the Corpus Christi Rayz (CHL), Flint Generals (UHL), Anchorage Aces (WCHL), Missouri River Otters (UHL) and Jackson Bandits (ECHL).

The Toronto, Ontario native spent four seasons on a full scholarship with the University of Alabama-Huntsville, where he was an Academic All-American and graduated summa cum laude with a degree in finance.

Woodcroft and his wife, Jaclynn, reside in San Jose.

COREY SCHWAB

Goaltending Development Coach

Former National Hockey League goaltender and Stanley Cup-winner Corey Schwab enters his sixth season as the goaltending development coach for the San Jose Sharks. Schwab, 42, works with all goaltenders in the Sharks organization from the NHL, AHL, ECHL, college, and Canadian and United States junior leagues. He works closely with and reports to Wayne Thomas, whose responsibilities as the vice president and assistant general manager of the San Jose Sharks include coaching the goaltenders at the NHL and AHL level.

Schwab spent three seasons (2005-08) as associate goaltending coach and scout for the Tampa Bay Lightning, where he worked with Tampa Bay assistant coach and former NHL goaltender Jeff Reese, and worked with the organization's goaltenders in Springfield (AHL), Norfolk (AHL) and Johnstown (ECHL), as well as the organization's goaltending prospects.

The North Battleford, Saskatchewan native also served as one of the team's goaltending scouts and collected detailed information on all other team's goaltenders and goaltending prospects while assisting with scouting draft-eligible goaltenders.

A veteran of 147 regular season games with New Jersey, Tampa Bay, Vancouver and Toronto over his eight-year NHL career, Schwab posted a 42-63-13 record with a 2.89 goals-against average and a .896 save percentage, along with six shutouts.

Schwab was a member of the 2003 Stanley Cup Champion New Jersey Devils as well as the 1995 Calder Cup Champion Albany River Rats. Schwab shared the Harry (Hap) Holmes Award as the AHL's top goalie in the regular season, as well as the Jack A. Butterfield trophy as Calder Cup playoff MVP.

Schwab and his wife, Debbie, have two sons: Austin and Brady.

MIKE RICCI

Development Coach

One of the most beloved players to ever don a Sharks sweater, Mike Ricci enters his sixth season as development coach following one season as an advisor to San Jose's hockey operations department.

In this role, Ricci, 42, works with Head Coach Todd McLellan and his staff to provide on-ice instruction and assistance when the team is at home and will also work closely with Scout Bryan Marchment, visiting and working with the Sharks prospects in Worcester and various junior teams.

Ricci finished his stellar, 16-year National Hockey League career in 2007 after notching 605 points (243 goals, 362 assists) and 979 penalty minutes in 1,099 games with Philadelphia, Quebec/Colorado, San Jose and Phoenix. He also added 66 points (23 goals, 43 assists) in 110 Stanley Cup Playoff games. Ricci won a Stanley Cup with Colorado in 1996.

His 263 points (101 goals, 162 assists) with San Jose ranks 10th on the Sharks all-time list and his 529 games place him sixth all-time. In 59 Stanley Cup Playoff games with San Jose, Ricci ranks tied for eighth on the franchise's all-time list with 33 points (14 goals, 19 assists).

Ricci was originally selected by the Philadelphia Flyers in the first round (fourth overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft. In June 1992, he was part of the blockbuster trade between Philadelphia and the Quebec Nordiques that saw the Flyers trade Ricci, Ron Hextall, Peter Forsberg, Steve Duchesne, Kerry Huffman, Chris Simon, first round selections in the 1993 and 1994 NHL Entry Drafts and $15 million to the Nordiques in exchange for Eric Lindros.

Ricci was acquired by the Sharks on Nov. 21, 1997, along with a second round selection in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft, in exchange for Shean Donovan and a first round selection in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft.

TIM BURKE

Director of Scouting

Director of Scouting Tim Burke enters his 17th season as the head of the Sharks scouting department.

Burke, 58, coordinates and oversees the Sharks efforts in the National Hockey League's annual draft while working closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Wilson and his staff. In addition to being the principal decision maker at the draft table, Burke is also responsible for evaluating amateur talent at every level in all North American and European leagues and supervises all aspects of the club's amateur scouting efforts.

Burke's hard work and keen decision making, coupled with the talents of his competent staff at evaluating players, has produced admired results. Burke's selection process has helped the Sharks create a solid foundation of talented players from which to build the franchise around — including Patrick Marleau (1997), Joe Pavelski (2003), Marc-Edouard Vlasic and Alex Stalock (2005), Justin Braun (2007), Logan Couture (2007), Jason Demers, Harri Sateri and Tommy Wingels (2008) and Tomas Hertl (2012).

Beginning with the 2003 NHL Draft, Doug Wilson's first as general manager, through 2011, Sharks draft selections have played the third-most games of any NHL team's draft picks (4,658) and posted the fifth-most points (1,977) in that span, despite the organization having the lowest average draft position of any NHL team during that span (138th).

A member of the Sharks scouting department since the 1992-93 campaign, Burke was promoted to his current position on June 4, 1996. Before his promotion, Burke served as director of professional scouting from 1992-96 and evaluated talent throughout all North American professional leagues and assisted with amateur scouting.

From 1987-92, he spent five seasons in the New Jersey Devils organization, serving in several capacities, including as a Devils assistant coach, head coach for the American Hockey League's Utica Devils and as a pro scout. Burke was also an assistant coach at Princeton University from 1984-86.

A former defenseman, Burke was selected by the Montreal Canadiens in the seventh round (124th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft and by the Chicago Cougars in the second round (25th overall) of the 1974 World Hockey Association Entry Draft. He was a four-year letterman in both hockey and baseball at the University of New Hampshire, where he was named to the NCAA's All-America hockey team after his senior campaign.

He played seven years of professional hockey following his outstanding collegiate career, including three seasons (1977-80) with the Nova Scotia Voyageurs, the Canadiens AHL affiliate, and one season with Jokerit Helsinki in the Finnish Elite League.

JOHN FERGUSON

Director of Pro Scouting

Long-time National Hockey League front office veteran executive John Ferguson enters his sixth season as the Sharks director of pro scouting.

Ferguson has worked at the highest level in hockey operations for three NHL franchises: the St. Louis Blues, Toronto Maple Leafs and the Sharks. During his tenure at each location, every franchise has set a franchise-record for most points in a single-season; St. Louis (2000), Toronto (2004), and San Jose (2009).

During his five seasons with the Sharks, the team has won three Pacific Division titles (2009, 2010, 2011), a Presidents' Trophy (2009) and reached the Western Conference Final twice (2010, 2011), as well as compiled a .649 points percentage and won five playoff rounds in five seasons.

Ferguson works closely with Executive Vice President and General Manager Doug Wilson and Director of Scouting Tim Burke analyzing and evaluating professional hockey players at the NHL and American Hockey League levels.

Prior to joining the Sharks, Ferguson, 46, spent four-plus years as vice president, general manager, and alternate governor of the Toronto Maple Leafs. During that time, the Maple Leafs set single-season franchise records for most points (103, 2003-04), wins (45-tied, 2003-04), home wins (26, 2005-06) and road wins (23, 2003-04). He compiled an overall record of 145-110-10-30, including three 40-plus win and 90-plus point seasons. His .559 winning percentage is the second-highest amongst all general managers in Maple Leafs history.

While serving as general manager of the Maple Leafs, the NHL adopted Ferguson's rule change recommendation that the initial face-off of every power play should start in the empowered team's offensive zone.

Ferguson has also served on the management team of Team Canada, working alongside Steve Yzerman and Doug Armstrong, for their undefeated, gold-medal winning campaign at the 2007 IIHF World Championships, the youngest-ever squad to win a World Championship.

Before working in Toronto, Ferguson spent 1997-2003 with the St. Louis Blues organization, including five seasons as assistant general manager before being promoted to vice president and director of hockey operations in February 2001. There, he worked closely with Senior Vice President and General Manager Larry Pleau in managing all facets of the Blues hockey operations department, including analyzing and negotiating player contracts, and evaluating professional and amateur players in North America and Europe.

During his tenure with the St. Louis franchise, the team won five playoff rounds and compiled a .610 points percentage, including a trip to the 2001 Western Conference Final and a Presidents' Trophy in 2000.

He also served as president and general manager of the Worcester IceCats, the team's American Hockey League affiliate and served as chairman of the AHL's Competition Committee and was a member of the Legal Affairs Committee.

Before working in St. Louis, Ferguson was an amateur and professional scout with the Ottawa Senators organization from 1993-96 and was as a player agent during the 1996-97 season.

A 12th round (247th overall) selection of the Montreal Canadiens in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft, Ferguson played four professional seasons with Sherbrooke, Fredericton and New Haven of the AHL. He was alternate captain of the 1992 Fredericton team that won the AHL regular season championship and was named the team's "unsung hero" in consecutive years (1991 and 1992).

Ferguson played collegiately at Providence where he served as an alternate captain, was an Academic All-American and graduated magna cum laude with a degree in business administration in 1989. Following his professional hockey career, he enrolled at Suffolk University Law School, where he graduated cum laude after interning at the National Hockey League office in Manhattan during the summers of 1994 and 1995. Ferguson was admitted to the Massachusetts State Bar in 1996.

The Montreal, Quebec native is the son of the late five-time Stanley Cup champion and former NHL general manager John Ferguson, who spent 11 seasons with the San Jose Sharks hockey department.
